BEGINNING SASHIKO STITCHING

Sashiko: The Japanese Running Stitch

Saturday, January 27, 2024 • 12:30 AM - 4:30 PM with Jade Falcon
Fee: $85

In this intimate workshop, you will be introduced to Japanese sashiko, and given the tools and basic knowledge to start your sashiko journey.

We’ll cover sashiko’s historic and cultural importance and what makes it different from other running stitch techniques. At the end of this workshop, you will have acquired hands-on experience in doing sashiko, a basic working knowledge of the concepts, terminology, and methods of sashiko, as well as your own partially finished - or completed! - sashiko piece.

MATERIALS: Fabric, snips, needles, thread... See lacismuseum.org/classes.html#sashiko for the list.

INSTRUCTOR: Jade studied her art under Atsushi Futatsuya, who descends from a family line of sashiko stitchers, and has been sewing, embroidering, and doing all manner of crafting since the age of 5. Sashiko has become a passion over the past few years.

You can register by mail, by email (info@lacismuseum.org), by phone, or in the museum shop.
